U are still struggling with their lives due to the effects of a chemical which changes their minds to make them look like zombies. Through the three days of their holiday, they all learn about their past and the events that lead to their downfall. Plot Three friends, Haider (Neil Nitin Mukesh), Pia (Sonal Chauhan), and Raizada (Asheesh Kapur), along with Haider's parents (Mrinalini Sharma and Suchitra Krishnamoorthy) are about to spend their family vacation in Fiji Island. The friends also have a condition that gets worse as they start moving to the island. Through this, Haider's friends get into a big problem. Haider's parents also get into an accident and are unable to communicate with Haider. They become very disturbed and they reach the state where Haider's friends don't know what to do. They believe that Haider and his parents are dead. The friends stay at a small resort and during that time Haider's friends start developing their own language. They realize that Haider's parents are not dead and that they have been put into a state of mind in which they are able to communicate with them through images. They keep arguing with each other while they are doing this. When Haider's parents start making Haider's friends believe that they are acting like the dead, Haider's friends change their image in order to convince Haider's parents that they are not dead. The friends also start doing things they don't want to do. They try to kill themselves in order to kill the virus that has turned their minds into zombies. They ask Haider's parents to turn themselves into zombies to save them from the virus. Haider's parents go to their basement where their room is located. They realize that they have been put in a state of mind in which they are able to communicate with the friends. But the friends try to make Haider's parents not to turn them into zombies. This is the only way to save the friends. Haider's friends do many things to save themselves. They try to convince Haider's parents to help them in their own way, by doing things they have to do to save themselves. They do everything they think will work, by tricking Haider's parents into thinking that they are not moving and that they are moving like zombies. They also try to make the hotel guests go away. Haider's friends also try to find someone who will help 82157476af
